Media/Publications Policy

At East Dubuque High School, we are proud of the accomplishments and awards of our students. We have established means of recognition for students in our school newspaper, newsletter, yearbook, and school website. We feel the following policy will protect students:

- Student photos will be used in the school newspaper, newsletter, yearbook, and website.
- No students will be identified in photos on the school website; however, student names may appear on the website in articles and other text.
- Students appearing in the newspaper, newsletter, and yearbook will be identified.
- No student's home address, phone number, or other personal information will be published.
- Student group photos will not be restricted by this policy.

Do you want to have your child omitted from all school media?      Yes      No
